Hell Burns With Fire

Powerman 5000

Before the sleep, self wealth
Hell burns with fire
I can't retire to a shell
Ya hear what I tell
Ya hear what I tell
You gotta breathe in before you exhale
Take it in, sort it out
There ain't no doubt
That the heaviest sleeper
Sleeps without an angel
To justify you meaning
Before you settle down
Your conscience must clean it
[Unverified] clearer
To fear your life and ass is for the devil
Ask yourself, when you ask yourself
Why look yourself in the eye?
