

Lemon

U2

Lemon

See through in the sunlight

She wore lemon

But never in the daylight

She's gonna make you cry

She's gonna make you whisper and moan

And when you're dry

She draws her water from the stone And I feel

Like I'm slowly, slowly, slowly slipping under

And I feel

Like I'm holding onto nothing She wore lemon

To color in the cold grey night

She had heaven

And she held on so tight A man makes a picture

A moving picture

Through the light projected

He can see himself up close

A man captures color

A man likes to stare

He turns his money into light to look for her And I feel

Like I'm drifting, drifting, drifting from the shore

And I feel

Like I'm swimming out to her Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins Lemon

See through in the sunlight A man builds a city

With banks and cathedrals

A man melts the sand so he can

See the world outside

A man makes a car

(She's your destination)

And builds roads to run them on

A man dreams of leaving

But he always stays behind And these are the days

When our work has come asunder

And these are the days

When we look for something other Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day beginsMidnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day beginsA man makes a picture
A moving picture
Through the light projected
He can see himself up close
A man captures color
(She's your destination)
A man likes to stare
There's no sleeping there
He turns his money into light to look for her (she's imagination)Lemon
She is the dreamer
She's imagination
Through the light projected
He can see himself up close
