Soldier

Damien

What have I done to feel these fists from heaven?
I have to question
Have I done wrong?
What's with this reaction?
Am I a mad man?If I walked on water, would I sink or drown?
I, I think I'm lost, could I ever be found?
If I held your Bible, will my soul set fire?
When that dark day comes, will I be up by your side?Oh, when this world comes crashing down
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldier
Oh, when this place falls to the ground
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldierI guess it's you, hey
I guess it's you
That makes me be the bad one
That makes me be the mad one
I guess it's you, hey
I guess it's you
That puts these thoughts inside me
It's like you wanna hide me, oh yeah
I guess it's youHave I done wrong?
What's with this reaction?
Am I a mad man?Oh, when this world comes crashing down
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldier
Oh, when this place falls to the ground
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldierOh, when this world comes crashing down
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldier
Oh, when this place falls to the ground
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldier
