

My Seventeen

Daylight

Surfing the waves of the ocean
Live flows in slow motion while dreaming about
Walking through stars and reliving past stories
Of no pain and glory
Now's all back to meWelcome to my seventeen
Another time
All the things you left behind
Now are alive
Welcome to those pretty nights
Under the moon
Welcome to my seventeenNight lights show me where I'm going
Singing old melodies and dreaming about
Running away to a place with new stories
I'll come back I promise.
For my seventeenWelcome to my seventeen
Another time
All the things you left behind
Now are alive
Welcome to those pretty nights
Under the moon
Welcome to my seventeen TONIGHT
