

Ash and Earth (Live in Chicago)

Velvet Crush

Try and hold on to a dream
Never get more than it means
I need to feel it
I know it's bad
Feel so tired and scattered
Reconstruct me from the tatters
Resurrect me from the ash
And the earth
So alone to wait and see
Slowly all day comes to be
Be by my side
Dedicate
This is all that matters
Reconstruct me from the tatters
Resurrect me from the ash and the earth that I've become
Be by my side
Dedicate
Reconstruct me from the tatters
Resurrect me from the ash and earth
Reconstruct me from the tatters
Resurrect me from the ash and earth
