Tower

Babble

In this tower, the highest sea
There are no words, there are no dreams
There is no life, there is no day
And time is the eternal gameIn this tower on the hill
On this side, lying on a still
Then cries out, "Love Has No Name"
So she just floats through it againIn this tower, an endless sky
From heaven shines an ancient light
An old world we ever made, oh
Comes as though it fades awayIn this tower, in my way, ha, ha, ha, ha
I'm the fire, I'm the light
Between the glory and the pain
And in this soul you cannot say
