Love Insurance

Bang Bang

(3:07)
Give me some Love Insurance
I need the million dollar plan
That way the day you leave me
I'll be able to make a friend
Sure I'll be broken hearted
And I'll have you to thank
But I'll only be lonely
Walkin' to and from the bank
Give me some Love Insurance
I need, I need, I need...
The million dollar plan
I knew the day I met you
I'd be your biggest fan
But your eyes spelled out "DANGER"
(double-you-oh) M.A.N.!
But I thought maybe I'd be lucky
Maybe you'd take my hand
And touch these lips of roses
Delivering the promised land
Give me some Love Insurance.
I need the million dollar plan
You're my coffee in the morning
The honey in my tea
The most delicious kisses
Baby you're exhaustin' me
But I am fearful for
That you'll want less and I"ll want more
So just to even the score...
