

Island Dream

Tristen

Pay mind gentle sweeps of the melody
She's calling you from the dark
Step into a dream for a moment
A message from a meadowlark
Now we're on an island dream
There's a man there
Waiting with a key
To unlock you to the point in question
With a new technology
If I move any closer to you
Will that make it true?
For I was longing for a new translation
I hoping for a clue
Hypnotized in a far off land
Where the atmosphere isn't cold
And I was connecting my mind to something
I was connected to the code
Somewhere by the oceanside
There's a man there
Waiting with a spell
To anoint you to your rightful position
In the spitfires of hell
If I swim any closer to you
Will you make it clear?
For I wait in the great white's way
I am drowning for my fear
Somewhere on an island dream
There's a man offering a pill
To recruit me to a new perception
Void of my suffering will
If I move any closer to you
Will you help me see?
For I'm pulled by the weight of the water
I am sinking gravity
Somewhere on an island dream
La di da
Somewhere on an island dream
La di da
Somewhere on an island dream
La di da
Somewhere on an island dream
La da da da da da

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>