

P.R.D. Chaos

Earthtone9

lie to me, for a short while lay with me, for a short while i will wear my fears for you i will wear my fears for you lay me down there's nothing done closed eyes bring change too great, lost sometimes
too great, lost sometimes i will wear my fears for you ask a question not just any what am i, about being lost closed eyes bring change
too great, lost sometimes i will wear my fears for you lie to me, for a short while lay with me, for a short while
last caress and nothing done ask a question
what am i, about being lost ask a question, question, question live version of 'p.r.d. chaos' has karl shouting "raging fucking speedhorn!" at the end
