

Fuck You Sweetness

Regurgitator

Your eyes like all day suckers, shining bright,
Your dandruff hundreds and thousands, glitter in the night.
Liquorice eyebrows, forehead in a ??? of milk
Your face sweeter than a candy cottage, without the liquorice belt. But I guess, all that curdles baby, and all sugar ferment.
Now my heart's just like ice cream melting down on a dirty pavement. Your raspberry bootlace lips, your jaw breaker smile.
Your kiss like a caramel twix, sweeter than a kinder surprise.
Scotch fingers, long to linger in your big cotton candy hairdooooo
Im hooked on a cherry ripe look you bad malteser you. But I guess, all that curdles baby, and all sugar ferment.
Now my heart's just like ice cream melting down on a dirty pavement. Fuck you sweetness you rot my teeth they're falling out.
Fuck you sweetness you damned this sweetness in my heart.
Smile my teeth are breaking, laugh my stomach's aching.
I'm just about done with baking this year's sour tart. But I guess, all that curdles baby, and all sugar ferment.
Now my heart's just like ice cream melting down on a dirty pavement. Fuck you sweetness you rot my teeth their falling out.
Fuck you sweetness you damned this sweetness in my heart.
Smile my teeth are breaking, laugh my stomach's aching.
I'm just about done with baking this year's sour tart. Da da da do.....
