

Leave The World

Blutengel

You lay on your bed this night
Your eyes stir on the walls
There's no one beside you anymore
And you feel aloneA candle burns in your room
Rains keeps falling on your past
No hope for a better life
And you feel paralyzedA black tear falls from your eyes
You hold the razor blade in your hand
One cut to end it all
You want to die tonightOn bloody wings you can fly
No one can hold you back anymore
You're on your way to eternal silence
No one can hurt you there
