Back for More

A*Teens

I know I might seem weird
One day I'm around the next I disappear
This is a crazy act
But I won't break up, kiss and make up that's a fact'Cause always, ever, after and onWhen you think the party's over look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight, 'til the break of day like we did before
We'll be coming back for moreWe're on a one-way ride
And all I need is someone like you by my side
You saw the movie too
We'll ride into the sunset like they always doFor all days, all nights, hours I'm goneWhen you think the party's over look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight, 'til the break of day like we did before
We'll be coming back for moreIf I'm still number one
The one your looking for
I won't be gone for long
Now I'll be back for moreWhen you think the party's over
Just look over your shoulder
We'll be coming back for moreWhen you think the party's over look over your shoulder
I'm at your door, coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight, 'til the break of day like we did before
We'll be coming back for moreWhen you think the party's over look over your shoulder
We'll be coming back for more
Dancing in the moonlight, 'til the break of day like we did before
We'll be coming back for more
