Always Leaving

Cowboy Mouth

A wave of my hand and a red-faced smile
Invisible man has been here all the while
He put me in my place
He really put me in my placeThis lesson's stranger every day
The undertaker never knew me anyway
Now it's written on my face
It's really written on my faceI'm always leaving, but I never go away
Help me pack my bags and I'll ride
I'm always leaving, but I never go away
Don't you know love that I've triedI've triedJust like whispers from the well
The bartender rings me like a bell
Leave a message just in case
Leave a message just in caseI'm always leaving, but I never go away
Help me pack my bags and I'll ride
I'm always leaving, but I never go away
Don't you know love that I've tried
I've triedSame dream every day
Same dream every day
Same dream every dayI'm always leaving, but I never go away
Help me pack my bags and I'll ride
I'm always leaving, but I never go away
Don't you know love that I've tried
I've triedI'm always leaving
I'm always leaving
I'm always leaving, but I never, no I never go awayI'm always leaving , but I never go away
I'm always leaving
I'm always leaving
