

Mostly

Ozenza

this is darkest day i've seen i can't find an opening i've never felt this rage in me i've never known this anger i'm feeling like a curse i feel like i'm getting worse i'm bored with war and songs i've been bitter far too long come on prove me long and tell me i'm no longer and tell me i'm not crazy well maybe just a little bit maybe just a little bit crazy
but mostly prove me wrong they're up to something in my head i can hear them taunting me thanks for nothing imagined friends i can hear you laughing i feel like a harse like i'm carrying dead i'm tired of being right i'm retiring from that fight hey come on prove me wrong and tell my i'm no longer tell me i'm not crazy
or maybe just a little bit
i'm feeling like a bomb like i'm screwing up my song it's like i don't belong no point in going on
