

Wrath of God

Crystal Castles

White swords of blinding razor light blast round the earth
Validating with immortal strength courage of the brave
From the aftermath of dust and flames resilience soars
Upon the searing light's reflected blade that guards and saves
The dark sky the victims
The air is full of vengeance
From now on no mercy
The wrath of God reins on you
These monuments of power and steel carved in each soul
Stand forever indestructible for all mankind
The face of mighty nations liberty in stoic resolve
For all the hated evil that men can do will be avenged
The dark sky the victims
The air is full of vengeance
From now on no mercy
The wrath of God reins on you
It's over you're wasted
Now you're incinerated
In hell I'll meet you
And once again defeat you
And though the light is dimmed to black someday
Inside it burns a raging fire to virtues endless war
And freedom's cause
The dark sky the victims
The air is full of vengeance
From now on no mercy
The wrath of God reins on you
It's over you're wasted
Now you're incinerated
In hell I'll meet you
And once again defeat you
