

Envy

East West

I watched you fade away,
into a sea of taillights.

My eyes still strained to this day...
Evidence of who we were,
left here along the way.

I see the truth in the tree.I'll free you, fall away.
I'll free you, fade away. (x 2)The world just stopped its pull,
and I could almost hear you,
crying out through the noise...
The things I thought I knew,
so close to understanding.

But now I'm dumb to the wise.I'll free you, fall away.
I'll free you, fade away. (x 2)I see her, perfectly clothed in white...my eyes burn...I'll free you, fall away.
I'll free you, fade away. (x 2)
