

Blood (Empty Promises)

Papa Roach

I will forgive but I won't forget
And I hope you know you've lost my respect
You better watch out, if you don't know what's going on around you
You better think twice before you fly off the handle and lose it
You better join us before you get lost in the shuffle
You gotta rise against the demons that are gonna try and hold you down Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
The ones you love, the ones you love, the ones you love
Cause I'm not a pawn for you to play in your fucking game
I've got dignity and I dream that I want to achieve
Under pressure, you crumbled and you let me down
I'm not deaf and all I hear are your empty promises
Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
The ones you love, the ones you love, the ones you love
Does it run in your blood to betray the ones you love?
Yes, it runs in your blood to betray the ones you love
Yes, it runs in your blood to betray the ones you love
Yes, it runs in your blood to betray the ones you love
Yes, it runs in your blood to betray the ones you love
I will forgive but I won't forget
And I hope you know you've lost my respect
Yes, it runs in your blood to betray the ones you love
Yes, it runs in your blood to betray the ones you love
