

Sweet Feet

Judith Owen

Sweet feet, brother, sister
I've watched your fragile features grow
I know all the pain that you retain inside
I'd do anything to make it go
I can be wearing, I can be tearing at times
But there's just one thing I want you to know
When it feels like, life has laid you low
And there's no one else hanging round
When it feels like, you are just a rolling stone
I'll keep your sewwt feet firmly on the ground
'Cause you and I have grown up
You and I have sold out
You and I have laughed and
We're here, keep rolling on...
'Cause when it you feel like, life has laid you low
And there's no one, no one, no one, hanging round
Yes when you feel like, you are just a rolling stone
Well I'll keep your sweet feet firmly on the ground
I'll keep your sweet feet firmly on the ground
