

Rhythm of the Blues

Mary Chapin Carpenter

I can hear the rain come down, I can listen with my heart
I can see you with both eyes closed in the dark
Sleep will come in just a while but till it does I choose
To listen to the rain, it's the rhythm of the blues I walk along these streets of home that once belonged to us
And now, baby, I walk alone and I am lost
In the sound of my own footsteps on the avenues
I guess I'm only walking to rhythm of the blues I don't wanna hear another word spoken
I don't wanna see another tear shed
I can't seem to fix what's broken
Like this record, baby, in my head Lonely looks as bad on me as lonely looks on you
And still we keep on moving to the rhythm of the blues

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>