Captivate

Starfield

You say, strength is found in weakness Peace in incompleteness So why do I hold on? You look, for a heart that's open For beauty in the broken So why am I withdrawn? My soul's screaming out To be found in YouSpirit draw me to my knees Captivate all of me, all of me Here before You honestly Captivate all of me, all of meI'm so messy and distracted Undisciplined and tactless Here on the insideI thought age would tell the secrets But the secrets are still secret And the years are passing byMy soul's screaming out To be found in YouSpirit draw me to my knees Captivate all of me, all of me Here before You honestly Captivate all of me, all of meTeach me to wait in the moments of my need Teach me to hear the melodies of peaceSpirit draw me to my knees Captivate all of me, all of me Here before You honestly Captivate all of me, all of meSpirit draw me to my knees Captivate all of me, all of me Here before You honestly
