

How the Story Goes

Josh Kelley

I said love
I feel like I'm standing on top of the sun
And even your temperature won't make me runBeing with you makes me feel
So alive, mesmerized
I realize that it's in your eyesHoney, this is not just a fantasy
Let me keep on keeping it real
Being with you makes me feel
So alive, mesmerized, I realize that it's in your eyesHi oh, hey oh
This is how the story goes
And you know, I know
That we don't want to be aloneHi oh, hey oh
This is how the story goes
And you know, I know
That we don't want to let it goPeople, they say ?You will never find love?
They say ?It's a myth, all you want is that touch?
But I disagree 'cause I know I feel
So alive, mesmerized
I realize that it's in her eyesHoney, feel like I'm floating on that ecstasy
Oh, give me something more so I can feel it
So alive it's in your eyes
I'm mesmerized, gonna blow your mindHi oh, hey oh
This is how the story goes
And you know, I know
That we don't want to be aloneHi oh, hey oh
This is how the story goes
And you know, I know
That we can never let it goI feel so high
Oh, my baby she makes me wanna touch the sky
Oh you never know unless you tryHi oh, hey oh
This is how the story goes
And you know, I know
That we don't want to be aloneHi oh, hey oh
This is how the story goes
And you know, I know
That we can never let it goI realize that it's in your eyes
I realize that it's in your eyes
I realize that it's in your eyes
I realize that it's in your eyesGonna blow your mind
I'm gonna blow your mind

I wanna blow your mindGonna blow your mind
I wanna blow your mind
Gonna blow your mindI realize that it's in your eyes
