Make Me A Believer

Thousand Foot Krutch

Fill me in, turn me inside out
Sometimes I feel like just letting go and screaming out loudFill me up, sometimes it's so messed up
I feel like giving up but it's not far nowBut it feels so far away,
Can't you pull me up andMake me a believer, let you down
For the first time comes undone
If you let me, so don't put me down
And don't let this feeling slip awayLet me in, these walls are closing in Sick of these holds I'm in
Stuck outside and looking back inClose me up, these hands have had enough
I feel like giving up, but it's not far nowAway, I'm sorry, I'm sorry
And tonight ignore me, ignore me,
You know I, I'm sorry, so sorry,
And I'm sorry
