Sail On

White Arrows

Our home is there
We have our games
You say Iâ€™m right
I must use refrain
Stop you from shaking
This storyâ€™s aching
Something is going wrong
Just like an atom bomb
People run and hide
It is too tie dye

There are times when the world seems to stop
Then Iâ€™ll have to time to sit and walk
I know, I know
I know, I know

Sun is coming down
Tide is rising
Knowing all we see
Is repeating
Theyâ€™re just leaving
Now weâ€™re taking off
See you never
Now your time is up

There are times when the world seems to stop
Then Iâ€™ll have to time to sit and walk
I know, I know
I know, I know

Oh, and over here
Weâ€™ll go out to sea
So much left to see
Waves wash over me
You come take my hand
You donâ€™t understand
Nothing left to show
What we came here for
