

Resistance

Zao

I won't allow it, I won't let it happen
This weakness will be strengthened
Take away this battle Let your fire burn within, purify, purify
Don't release your hand from me
I must surrender, must lay it down Now what's to gain from my selfishness?
What will I promote
And what will be pushed back? My hope must rise, strength come forward Linking my hand in yours, let your chains uphold me
No more will I break this bond, no more will I remain the same Let your fire burn within, purify, purify
Don't release your hand from me
I must surrender, must lay it down
Dont release your hand from me My God has ever loved himself in me
I am convinced, I must stay
I must stay, I must stay
