No Mother

Old 97's

In the valley of the shadows, Im waiting
For mother and the other ones I love
So know Ill always love you
Until we meet aboveIn the battle of the bottle Im an innocent
And the breaking of glass Im lost
In the shadow of a downtown overpass
My last I did exhaustNo, no, no mother
Should ever have to lose a son
No, no, no never
Especially not such a handsome oneIn the middle of the meadow, Im waiting
For mother and the other ones I love
Theres no good why this came to pass
Theres only just becauseNo, no, no mother
Should ever have to lose a son
No, no, no never
Especially not such a handsome oneIn the valley of the shadows, Im waiting
For mother and the other ones I love
So know, Ill always love you
Until we meet aboveNo, no, no mother
Should ever have to lose a son
No, no, no never
Especially not such a handsome oneNo, no, no, no mother
Should ever have to lose a son
No, no, no, no never Especially not such a handsome one

Songwriters
Murry Hammond;Philip Wayne Peeples;Stewart Ransom Miller;Kendall Dewayne BetheaPublished by BURGERMEISTER MUSIC;WAIT TILL NEXT YEAR MUSIC;PENNYCOST MUSIC;THIS IS MY PIECE OF SHEET MUSIC;RAM ISLAND SONGS (SEE NOTES)

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/