

My Chains Are Gone

West Coast Baptist College

Amazing Love and How can it be
That you sent you Son to die
How my soul does rejoice
Just in the thought
That I am justified I feel freedom
Freedom from these chains
That have bound my soul to the grave
But praise God
Ever since that day They are all gone
Those chains they are gone
I'm moving on
New heights I have reached
The weight laid on me
The cross lifted off
They are gone
Hallelujah I'm free
My sins are gone How can I tell you
What happened inside
The day my soul was redeemed My ship it was sinking
All on it's own
Anchored in uncertainty But my Jesus He reached out His hand
And He lifted my burden of sin
Because of what my Savior did They are all gone
Those chains they are gone
I'm moving on
New heights I have reached
The weight laid on me
The cross lifted off
They are gone
Hallelujah I'm free
My sins are gone All my guilty deeds
Oh sin's curse on me
On me Praise God they are gone
Those chains they are gone
I'm moving on
New heights I have reached The weight laid on me
The cross lifted off
They are gone
Hallelujah I'm free

My sins are gone Those chains they are gone

I'm moving on

New heights I have reached

The weight laid on me The cross lifted off

They are gone

Hallelujah I'm free

My sins are gone Those chains are gone

Ooh

Hallelujah

My sins are gone
