

Morning in LA

White Lies

Sometimes I have to wake up
But it's all a little painful
All the street noise
This city's make up
Too heavy for me to shake off
Is it morning in LA?
I need to talk to my friend
Or maybe night time in Shanghai
Tell them what I'm feeling
They all got disconnected
And i'm left hanging on
Hanging on
There's some days
Where I think of leaving
But I'm discouraged by some feeling
All places of which I'm dreaming
Could break a heart instead of healing
Is it morning in LA?
I need to talk to my friend
Or maybe night time in Shanghai
Tell them what I'm feeling
They all got disconnected
Hanging on
Is it morning in LA?
I need to talk to my friend
Or maybe night time in Shanghai
Tell them what I'm feeling
They all got disconnected
Hanging on
Is it morning in LA?
Is it morning in LA?
Is it morning in LA?
Cause I'm left hanging on
Hanging on
