

Your Revolution Is a Joke

Funeral for a Friend

Well they stand to fight for nothing
Well show how stupid we've become
As fortune favors only
Those who care too much to see Oh, it will never be okay
Oh, some will say We stand to fight for nothing
We're so close your eyes and stay away
But don't believe their headlines
Well they poison our minds, everyday It will never be the same
Well purpose buried everyday
And lies that lead you to the grave
Ah some will say An' till we'll never be okay
And some will say
With purpose buried everyday
And some will say Lies that lead you to the grave
And some will say
Your revolution is a joke
As I will say
