Where the Tall Grass Grows

Ricky Van Shelton

There's three bedrooms hardwood floors and the kitchen's new
It's got everything a family needs and a backyard view
Ask anyone where it is everybody knows
Who used to live where the tall grass growsThe couple who lived there before they kept it up
But since they left that little yard looks a little rough
And God I miss that little boy who always kept it mowed
Wish they still lived where the tall grass growsSo come by and get the key go make yourself at home
Take all the time you need wish I could come along
But I'd sooner build a fire and crawl across it slow
Than face those burning mem'ries where the tall grass grows
And I'd sooner build a fire and crawl across it slow
Than face those burning mem'ries where the tall grass grows
Oh than face those burning mem'ries where the tall grass grows
