

One Step Away

Elisa

from all I want
and I know it's all hereafraid to move afraid to choose afraid of my own fear of times when I may not be strong places were I may not belongbut I hold on to this feeling that stands above all feelings tellin' me not to let goand I live on this feeling
the greatest of all feelings tellin' me not to grow coldplease help me get through and let me in you
