

Heaven In My Hands

Level 42

Hey yeah
Hey yeah
I'm going nowhere
Gotta face up to it
Gotta wake up to it
I feel so guilty
Killing time is a sin
There's no way you can win
A dam burst of dreams flows thru' me
They'll show me where I could be
Flash point feelings flow
Thru' my mind moving
From the mountains to the sea
I'll run across this land
Looking out for strength and beauty
A diamond in the sand
I will chase the four winds over
Trying to understand
I won't stop until I'm holding
Heaven in my hands
I won't let nobody
Turn me off of the track
Now there's no turning back
Won't let no worries
Turn my head inside out
Now there's no room for doubt
I'm heading for my destiny
And it feels electric to me
Flash point feelings go
Thru' my mind
I was lonely goin' nowhere
Drowning on dry land
I was almost stranded there
A shipwreck on the sand
But now I'll chase the whole world over
Making my demands
And I won't stop until I'm holding
Heaven in my hands
Aah aaa

Hey yeah
From the mountains to the sea
I'll run across this land
(I'll go with you anywhere)
Looking out for strength and beauty
A diamond in the sand
(And I would chase anywhere)
And I will chase the four winds over
Trying to understand
(And nothin' can stop me)
And I won't stop until I'm holding
Heaven in my hands
I was lonely going nowhere
Drowning on dry land
(And I'll chase anywhere)
(And I'll chase you anywhere)
