Don't Be Light

Air

Don't be light Don't be light

Don't be light

Maybe like meDon't be light

Don't be light

Don't be light

Maybe like meDon't be lightDon'tDon't

Don't be light

Don't

Maybe like meDon't be light

Don't be light

Don't be light

Maybe like meDon't be lightDon't be light, don't be light

Ahh, wild life

The gray surprises of our days

Singing in caves

Fabricating a new abandonWe don't see the master's hand

We bang on gold tambourines

In the cross hairs of some transient gun

Trading desires on the banquet lineLa la la

La la la

La la laDon't

Don't be light

Don't

Maybe like meDon't be light

Don't be light

Don't be light

Maybe like meDon't be light
