

Upstream

Charisma

Straight onto the beating path
Phase down into its aftermath
Kills me to find myself here at last
    I blame it on my human side
    I blame it on the other guy
    I blame the stars on the boulevard
        A perfect body, a perfect smile
The perfect lover impeccably in style
    I used to be, I'd laugh it off
    Now it's just this joke I got
    A halo promise in a sinner's dream
The punch line is I always swim upstream
    I blame it on my human side
    I blame it on the other guy
    I used to be, I'd laugh it off
    Now it's just this joke I got
    A halo promises a sinner's dream
The punch line is I always swim upstream, upstream
    I used to be, I'd laugh it off
    Now it's just this joke I got
    A halo promises a sinner's dream
The punch line is I always swim upstream, upstream
