

Everything's Gonna Be Alright

Enrique Iglesias

Uh yeah, uh no...yeah!!!
Everything is gonna be alright
Uh, yeah, yeah!!!
Everything's gonna be alright
Yeah, yeah!!!
'cause everything is gonna be alright
aay-ay-ay-ayyy uh yeah
Everything is gonna be alright (x2)
Well I know just what you're thinking
I can see it in your eyes
Love can brake us into pieces
Like it's done a million times, ohhh
But we know we got what it takes to make it
In the end everything is gonna be alright
aay-ay-ay-ayyy uh yeah
Everything is gonna be alright [x2]
Watched the sun come up this morning
And it chased away the rain
Had a dream that you were with me
Looking down from out space, ohoh

'cause we know we got what it takes to make it In the end everything's gonna be alright
aay-ay-ay-ayyy uh yeah
Everything's gonna be alright (x3)
aay-ay-ay-ayyy uh yeah
'cause everything's gonna be alright
Out in the streets, under the city lights
I feel the caos taking over me
Life is moving at the speed the light
I look at you and everything's gonna be alright
Yeah
Everything's gonna be alright
Uhh yeah, yeahhh
Everything is gonna be alright
aay-ay-ay-ayyy uh yeah
Everything is gonna be alright [x3]
Out here we're the stars
Nobody can't fuck with us

Don't care how far
We're gonna make it [x4]
'cause everything's gonna be alright
