C'mon C'mon

Von Bondies

On another day c'mon c'mon
With these ropes I tied can we do no wrong
Now we grieve cause now is gone
Things were good when we were young
With my teeth locked down I can see the blood
Of a thousand men who have come and gone
Now we grieve cause now is gone
Things were good when we were young
Is it safe to say? c'mon c'mon
Was it right to leave? c'mon c'mon
Will I ever learn? c'mon c'mon
c'mon c'mon c'mon c'mon
As I make my way c'mon c'mon
These better nights that seem too long
Now we grieve cause now is gone
Things were good when we were young

With my teeth locked down I can see the blood
Of a thousand men who have come and gone
Now we grieve cause now is gone
Things were good when we were young
Is it safe to say? c'mon c'mon
Was it right to leave? c'mon c'mon
Will I never learn? c'mon c'mon
c'mon c'mon c'mon c'mon
Is it safe to say? c'mon c'mon
Was it right to leave? c'mon c'mon
Will I never learn? c'mon c'mon
c'mon c'mon c'mon c'mon
And know this day these deepened wounds don't heal so fast
Can't hear me croon of a million lies that speak no truth
Of a time gone by that now is through

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/