Well love love love is a one way train comes on gentle as a hurricane it? s got p.a.i.n. written all the way through from where i? m set looking over at you and it takes all my might and it? ll take all my day and if it wants me to come well i know i? m gonna stay nothing can save me from my life but for love my mistakes i would rectify ...if i could and it? s all we? ve got to leave and if you take a drop of water from a bucket would not know does not show love is all that remains love? s gonna fill it again well love love love will make truth from a lie and i don? t want to live how i don? t want to die so give me one kiss to build a dream on gonna stay with me through the changing seasons and it? s all we? ve got to bring and if you take a drop of water...
