

Say You Will

Kanye West

Why would she make calls out the blue?
Now I'm awake sleep isn't newHey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will unless you will Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will then play you will
I pray you willMisses so fly crash lands in my room
Can't waste no time she might leave soonHey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, you do
Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, one day you will
I pray you willWhen I grab your neck I touch your soul
Take off your cool then lose controlHey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, you will, you will Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will if you will
I pray you willI wish this song would really come true
I admit I still fantasize about you, about youHey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, you will, you will
Hey, hey, hey, hey, please say, you will for real
I pray you will
