

Pep Talk

Descendents

It's not the end of the world
Since your baby left you
It's gonna be okay

You don't need her anyway You're looking around for someone to love

So you don't have to face the world alone
But give it some time and you might find

That you're better off on you own
Cause you could be dead right now

You could be the stupidest thing in the world
But you're not, look at what you've got

And stop thinking about that girl You deserve the best, but it's up to you to get it don't settle for less, you know you're gonna regret it It's not the end of the world

Since your baby left you
It's gonna be okay

You don't need her anyway Watching the rube, moping around

Might as well be six feet underground
You're watching the game go by Waiting for the final score

You got the beer commercials memorized
So you've probably heard this before
But this ain't the TV talking to you

It's a friend who's gonna tell you what you can do You deserve the best, but it's up to you to get it don't settle for less, you're the best and don't you forget it I know what you're thinking ... you'll never find another

And even if you did, well, you couldn't love her

But out there somewhere is the person, place or thing

That you need to make you believe in you It's not the end of the world
Since your baby left you
It's gonna be okay

You can find something better anyway Just take your time, and you will find

What your life requires
Just take your time, and you will find
What your heart desires
Just take your time, and you will find
You will find
