Premonition

Symphony X

Unlock the doors of silence
Scanning eyes turn into stonePours the wine of hate and enmity
Helpless minds dance in circles
Forever frozen within time
Then stare into unlit serenityEndless dreams are all encased in disarrayThrough the eyes of time I see
All the love and tragedy
The breath of fate surrounds me
And bring me to my kneesThrough the eyes of time I see
Peace and false tranquility
Although my scars they do run deep
Right here I'll beBlind visions summoned me
Return under blackened skies
Scorned and scathed by the spirit's songA shadow forbears warning
Reveals a rhyme, then descends
And falls into the black endless seaEndless dreams are all encased in disarrayThrough the eyes of time - I see
All the love and tragedy
The breath of fate surrounds me
And bring me to my kneesThrough the eyes of time I see
Peace and false tranquility
Although my scars they do run deep
Right here I'll beOur inner strengths will fill our needs
And heal the hearts that still bleed[Solo]Through the eyes of time I see
All the love and tragedy
The breath of fate surrounds me
And bring me to my kneesThrough the eyes of time I see
Peace and false tranquility
Although my scars they do run deep
Right here I'll be
