

Bones

Cash+David

Calling off, call the dogs off
'Cause I'm already weak enough
Beg the sun not to rise again
'Cause I can't face another day

Now that I'm alone
You can't touch me
'Cause I don't feel a thing
And I'm just tired to my bones

Now my heart is a silent myth
I've been waiting for you when I try to sleep
I wouldn't wish it on my enemy
There's nothing worse than when it hurts
And you're so hard to be

Now that I'm alone
You can't touch me
'Cause I don't feel a thing
And I'm just tired to my bones

'Cause I can't face another day

Now that I'm alone
You can't touch me
'Cause I don't feel a thing
And I'm just tired to my bones

Now that I'm alone
You can't touch me
'Cause I don't feel a thing
And I'm just tired to my bones
