Circles

Widowmaker

We had our time it's over
I've said my last good-bye
The lessons of a lifetime
I grieve, but never cry
I live, but go through the motions
Can't seem to shake this devotion
My passion lived in your ocean

You left me wandering around
Got me running in circles
Lost the strength that I found
Got me running in circles
Your memory casts a shadow
Your shadow walks with me
Your voice is now a whisper
I hear it endlessly
You haunt my every discretion
Your vision draws my attention
I break when your name is mentioned

Got me running in circles
Lost the strength that I found
Got me running in circles
Now I'm running around
Got me running in circles
Where's the strength that I'd found
Got me running

I'm living lonely, all my days filled with rain
I count the hours without you
Can't stop obsessing I don't know who to blame
You're gone what else can I do?
What else can I do

I live but go through the motions
Can't seem to shake this devotion

Got me running in circles

Lost the strength that I found
You got me running in circles
I'm still running around
You got me running in circles
God took the strength that I'd found
He's got me running
