

Between Your Thighs (feat. Young Greatness)

Rayven Justice

Can't lie girl I need it
I need it your feenin'
'Cause I been working hard all day
Your body I love it
I cannot controll it
You make a nigga feel this way
I swear girl I'm on my way
So anxious how can I wait
But as soon as I get inside
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighsIt's been a long day
I've been working all day
Can't believe I'm still here
I don't wanna be here
All I can think
Open 'em my baby at home for me
Hopin' that she ready to jump on me
Hopin' that she ready to hump on meWhat should the liquor mean
What should the (?) mean
Wish you to fuck with me
Wish you to ride on me
Hope you can take the D
After get high with me babe
Can't lie girl I need it
I need it your feenin'
'Cause I been working hard all day
Your body I love it
I cannot controll it
You make a nigga feel this way
I swear girl I'm on my way
So anxious how can I wait
But as soon as I get insidePut my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighsFuck the neighbours
Feenin', fuck your ass on the table
Baby, open your legs I just wanna taste it
Got you screamin' out loud
Come and knock your lights out

Your making too much noise
Forgot that this was your mums' house
What should the liquor mean
What should the (?) mean
Wish you to fuck with me
Wish you to ride on me
Hope you can take the D
After get high with me babe
Can't lie girl I need it
I need it your feenin'
'Cause I been working hard all day
Your body I love it
I cannot controll it
You make a nigga feel this way
I swear girl I'm on my way
So anxious how can I wait
But as soon as I get inside
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighs
Can't lie girl I need it
I need it your feenin'
'Cause I been working hard all day
Your body I love it
I cannot controll it
You make a nigga feel this way
I swear girl I'm on my way
So anxious how can I wait
But as soon as I get inside
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighs (oh oh oh)
Put my face in between your thighs
