This Is Goodbye

Michael Johns

The first time I met you, your eyes full of pain
Alone in the world and treated so cold
Close your eyes and rest in my arms
But I know you could never feel something moreOh, you were defensive, you were inventive
By the way you've been fooling meThis is goodbye, honey, this time it's true
And for the first time in a long time, I ain't got you
This is goodbye, woman, I'm missing you
Yeah, oh, I doTear down your wall, just give me your hand
Don't you feel like tomorrow, it has been planned
I let you be and just set you free
Knowing forever was never you and meYou were defensive, you were inventive
By the way you've been fooling meThis is goodbye, honey, this time it's true
And for the first time in a long time, I ain't got you, oh no
This is goodbye, womanLove ain't enough to keep it alive, yeah
Ooh yeah, you think it's all wrong
But we break down and cry
Ooh, you're out there alone
Do you still sing my song, oh
Ooh, know that I'm forever hereThis is goodbye, honey, this time it's true
And for the first time in a long time, I ain't got you, no
This is goodbye, honey, this time it's true
And for the first time in a long time, I ain't got you, oh noThis is goodbye
Woman, I'm missing you
Yeah, yeah, I do
