

Say Something

Karen Harding

Lately you've been quiet
Is there something on your mind, baby?
The suspense is killing me
So much that it's driving me crazy
The three words in your head
Drift ahead like they're gonna come save me
Oh, lately you've been quiet
Is there something on your mind, baby (Baby)?Baby, if you wanna say something, say it now
'Cause I ain't got the time to be waiting around
Come on, tell me what you're feeling, use your mouth
If you wanna say something, say it nowYou've been going out
Without doubt, what's going on baby?
I can see it in your eyes
Far behind and it's driving me crazy (So crazy)
Just tell me where you go
'Cause I really need to know, please tell me
I'm so tired every day
Listening to the little that you're saying (That you say to me)Baby, if you wanna say something, say it now
'Cause I ain't got the time to be waiting around
Come on, tell me what you're feeling, use your mouth
If you wanna say something, say it nowOh, if you wanna say something, say it now
'Cause I ain't got the time to be waiting around
Come on, tell me what you're feeling, use your mouth
If you wanna say something, say it nowSay it now
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh say it nowOh just say something to me
Oh yeah, oh
Say something
(Say it now)
(Waiting around)
(Use your mouth)
(Say it now)Oh, if you wanna say something, say it now
'Cause I ain't got the time to be waiting around

Come on, tell me what you're feeling, use your mouth
If you wanna say something, say it now If you wanna say something, say it now
'Cause I ain't got the time to be waiting around
Come on, tell me what you're feeling, use your mouth
If you wanna say something, say it now Say it now
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh say it now
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh come on, tell me what you
Oh say it now
