

Out Of Love

Smash Mouth

(Verse)

Don't ask,
I wanna say yes to you,
But I think I'm through,
I ain't lying,
Don't ask,
I wanna stay next to you,
Never wanted to see you crying.

Go on,
With your life,
Go on,
It's gonna be all right,

(Chorus)

See I've hit and I've missed,
Can you read these lips?
My push has finally come to shove,
Cause I've lived and I've learned,
And I've crashed and I've burned,
I think I've finally had enough.
Yeah I think I'm simply out of love.

(Verse)

It's okay,
I know you're gonna find the one,
You're gonna meet someone,
Who'll make it better,
But tonight,
I gotta let it go,
Wait until you know,
It lasts forever
Go on,
And be strong,
And I swear,
It's not me you want

(Chorus)

See I've hit and I've missed,
Can you read these lips?
My push has finally come to shove,
Cause I've lived and I've learned,

And I've crashed and I've burned,
I think I've finally had enough.
Yeah I think I'm simply out of love.

(Bridge)

I've been down every road,
I'll always leave the same place when the story is told,
I was too blind to see,
What it is that could be,
The best thing for me.

(Chorus)

Cause I've lived and I've learned,
And I've crashed and I've burned,
I think I've finally had enough.
Yeah I think I'm simply out of love.

See I've hit and I've missed,
Can you read these lips?

My push has finally come to shove,
Cause I've lived and I've learned,
And I've crashed and I've burned,
I think I've finally had enough.

Yeah I think I'm simply out of love.
Cause I've lived and I've learned,
And I've crashed and I've burned,
I think I've finally had enough.
Yeah I think I'm simply out of love.
