

Where the Sidewalk Ends

George Strait

(Jim Lauderdale/John Leventbal)Where the sidewalk ends and the road begins
We said goodbye on a cold dark night
I'm not afraid to go you bet I'm not
Where the side walk ends, you left a lotSome people leave and never come back
Some stay in touch, some lose track
Your mind kept saying come on let's go
You started learning what you don't need to knowWhere the sidewalk ends and the road begins
I'll wait for you in the cold dark night
You might come back you had to go
Where the sidewalk ends, I'll never knowHide from the future, run from the past
I guess I'll stay here as long as I can last Whistles still blow but the train is gone ain't no wheels gonna take me from my homeWhere the sidewalk ends and the road begins
We said goodbye on a cold dark night
I'm not afraid to go you bet I'm not
Where the side walk ends, you left a lotI'm not afraid to go you bet I'm not Where the sidewalk ends you left a lotWhere the sidewalk ends and the road begins
We said goodbye on a cold dark night
I'm not afraid to go you bet I'm not
Where the side walk ends, you left a lot
Where the side walk ends, you left a lot
Where the side walk ends, you left a lot
