Dark Life

Brainstorm

Someday you'll see
There is no cause
If there are some
Who share your thoughtsYou're afraid of the truth
So I will understand
If ignorance is bliss
It's the meaning of the endWisdom voices are guiding me
Meaningless words
Not worth the air I breatheThis is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrender
I won't surrender
This is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrender
I won't surrenderOh, something went wrong
All along the way
Are we meant
To take the painYou think the time has come
To set it straight
Never again
Will my life be the sameWisdom voices are haunting me
Wisdom voices are haunting me
No questions to be answered
Now I'm freeThis is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrender
This is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrenderOoohh
This is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrender
This is life

This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrenderThis is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
This is what you believe, but I won't surrender
This is life
This is dark
This is tearing me apart
