Good Morning

Stampead

tucked up tipping on two, which will it be?
I donâ€™t want none of your charity so slap me silent knock me down dig a little hole in the ground and kiss me goodbye

play me a song, the slowest song one to calm me down with a hum of angels and a circle of screams saying â€œfuck it my friend,â€• â€œitâ€™s gone, itâ€™s goneâ€• sing one more song and say goodnight

wake me up tomorrow, God Iâ€™ve got more in me I could sleep a million years if you stretch my luck again for just one more day then Lord send me away
I just want to hear them say I just want to hear good morning, good morning, good morningâ€¦
