Stay True

Q.a.s.b.

All though my life I've seen so many smilling faces come and go
Some of them have tried to bring my spirit low
(Don't Know why they'd want to)
'Cause they see my heart's devoted
To the One who always knows when to hold my hand so tight or let it go
(Can't they see they see Your love's just right)
I hear people talkin'
There's no way I'm stoppin'
Empty words won't change my love-for-you
I'm gonna stay true
I don't want someone new
I'm gonna stay true to You(whoa)
I'm gonna stay true
This is my attitude
I'm gonna stay true to You
Nobody else will do
Oh they're trying to convince me
That Your love is just a lie
That I might as well be listenin' to the sky
(Don't know what they're thinking')
Sayin' You won't really love me when You know what's deep inside
You'll just go 'cause You're above the sacrifice
(Can't they see they're out of line)
One thing that I know of
They can't steal Your love
Doubting words won't change my point-of-view

I'm gonna stay true
I don't want someone new
I'm gonna stay true to You(yeah)
I'm gonna stay true
Hopin' they'll see it too
I'm gonna stay true to you
'Cause nobody else will do
This is all I want out of life
Please know Your love I will not deny
Oh...
I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna stay

True to You
I think I'll stay(stay)true(true)
I'm gonna see it through
I'm gonna stay
True to You
'Cause nobody else will do
Whoa I believe
(That your love is real)
You won't ever leave
(That they'll never steal)
I'm gonna stay true
And that's my attitude
I'm gonna stay true to You
'Cause nobody else will do
