

Lonely Music

Jim Reeves

An empty glass
Another coin in the jukebox
This pain inside
Keeps hurtin' on and on
The music starts
A blue-blue song is playin'
You don't need me anymore
Now I'm alone But the guy
Who writes that lonely music
Needs lonely hearts like mine
That he can write about
As the words tell their story
How I miss you
This lonely music
Keeps reminding me of you So talk to me
Talk to me, oh lonely mu-sic
It tells me I'm a foo-ool
For trusting you
Just can't hold back the tears
Any lo-onger
This lonely music
Keeps reminding me of you So talk to me
Talk to me, oh lonely mu-sic
It tells me I'm a foo-ool
For trusting you
And as the words tell their story
How I miss you
This lonely music
Keeps reminding me of you

Songwriters

ELGIN Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>